September 2020

New York Insight Meditation Center (NYI) is an urban dharma center in the Theravada tradition located in the heart of New York City - and reaching yogis everywhere in these challenging times. We are searching for our next leader to take this beloved center into the future. It is an exciting time for us to explore and redefine who and how we are in relation to our community, teachers, the dharma and our world at large.

We need someone who can work closely with the varied stakeholders to create the path, ensure we stay on that path and maintain our fiscal integrity. Ideally, we would like our next ED to be committed on a personal and professional level to the success of our organization and commit to being with us for quite a while.

The ED is the person who holds it all together - reporting to the Board of Directors, the ED has direct oversight of the financial management and operations of NYI, the growth and stability of its programs, community/sangha, and infrastructure. There are several committees and a large volunteer body to help deliver our mission and programs. An amazing team including staff and contracted services for day-to-day financial, program, and operational management will support you.

The right candidate will have been in a leadership role in a nonprofit with highly developed business acumen. We are seeking someone with deep understanding of operations, diversity, equity and inclusion and the ability to plan for and manage the financial wellbeing of the Center. Expert level skills in communication, relationship management, organizational design/change management and getting things done are needed in order to be successful in this role.

You can find out more about NYI by checking out our website here.

We offer a salary in the range of $85-100k, unlimited paid time off and health insurance coverage. If you think you are the person to take us forward, please submit your expression of interest along with your resume and any questions you may have to search@nyimc.org.

New York Insight Meditation Center is an equal opportunity employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for employees, teachers and our sangha.
